ਨਕਲ ਦਰਖਾਸਤ 1926/SSP ਮਿਤੀ 05-05-2020 , "To Sr Superintendent of Police. SA.S. Nagar (Mohali) Punjab Sub: Request for registering criminal case and taking strict legal action against persons responsible for illegal abduction, in-human torture & stage managed elimination of my brother Balwant Singh Multani s/o Late Sh. i Darshan Singh Multani, so as to ensure justice. Sir. I. Palwinder Singh Multani S/o Late Sh. Darshan Singh Multani (Retd. IAS) residing at H. No. 280, Mota Singh Nagar Jalandhar, want to inform you that in the year 1991, my brother Balwant Singh Multani was picked up by a team of Chandigarh

Police on 11-12-1991 from our then residence 1741 (First Floor), Ph. - 7, Mohali and was taken to Police Station at Sec 17 Chandigarh under the orders of the then SSP Chandigarh Sumedh Singh Saini S/o Romesh Chander Saini. My father & our family left no stone unturned to secure release of my brother. Every legal recourse was also taken by my father but to no use. He filed habeas corpus petition and subsequently petition under 482 CrPC and fought for justice till his death, but due to influence and power wielded by Sumedh Singh Saini, we could not get justice and we lost all faith in law & order and judiciary. It may be mentioned here that towards the end of 2015, one Ex-Police officer of Punjab Police namely Gurmeet Singh alias Pinky made startling disclosures about the in human torture and elimination of various persons by Sumedh Singh Saini and other police officers. He also gave vivid details about the torture of my brother, which led to his death. A leading national magazine "Outlook" in their issue dated 14 December 2015 carried these disclosures in detail and it was their main cover story, which also found prominent mention in various print and electronic media. Our family was shaken and in the shivers to know that Saini, in his presence, facilitated and got inserted a wooden stick in the rectum of my Brother who was also administered electric shocks on his testicles by Sumedhi Ningh Saini himself. We were hopeful that the law & order machinery of Punjab and Chandigarh will take its cognizance but nothing happened because of the terror and influence of Sumedh Singh Saini and no action was taken. After retirement of Sumedh Singh Saini, our family again got some courage to resume our efforts to fight for justice. I contacted various people who had suffered alongwith my brother during that period and/or were conversant with the facts of the case. My friend Balwinderjit Singh S/o Ajit Singh, R/o 2-D, Model House, Jalandhar, who is also our family lawyer and whom my father has been consulting in this matter till his demise in 2014, gave me important inputs and papers pertaining to the abduction and elimination of my brother Balwant Singh Multani. The reliable facts of the entire case, which I have been able to collect, are as under: My brother Balwant Singh Multani was employed as a JE with Chandigarh Industrial &

Tourism Corporation (CITCO) and was residing at H. No. 1741 (First Floor), Ph. 7, Mohali. On 11-12-1991, early in the morning at about 4:00 AM, a team of Chandigarh Police forcibly abducted him without providing any documents or reason for this illegal act. My family tried to find out about his whereabouts without success. My father, Late Sh. D. S. Multani, who was a serving IAS officer of Punjab cadre raised hue and cry in this regard. It may be mentioned here that after his abduction on 11-12-1991, Chandigarh Police team headed by DSP Baldev Singh Saini under the instructions of Sumedh Singh Saini, took him along for raiding H. No. 1878, Housefed Complex, Ph. 10, Mohali, from where police took in custody Jaspreet Inderjit Singh and his father Manjit Singh in the presence of Sarabjeet Kaur & Gurtej Inderjeet Kaur, both daughters of Manjit Singh. Both Manjit Singh & Jaspreet Inderjit Singh were inhumanly tortured by police personnel headed by SI Satbir Singh and DSP Baldev Singh Saini to know the whereabouts of Devinder Pal Singh Bhullar, S/o Balwant Singh, R/o Dyalpura Bhaika (Distt. Bathinda) who was their relative. On 12-12-1991 at 2:00 AM, my brother Balwant Singh Multani, Manjit Singh and Jaspreet Inder Singh were all taken to Vill. Dyalpura Bhaika by police party headed by DSP Baldev Singh Saini and picked up Balwant Singh Bhullar, father of Devinder Pal Singh Bhullar in the presence of their neighbours and relatives. The same police team then descended on Vill. Rampura and took Kultar Singh into their illegal custody. This Kultar Singh was father-in-law of Devinder Pal Singh Bhullar. They were all taken to CIA Staff near Sec. 11, Chandigarh and were in illegal custody of SI Satbir Singh, who was regularly getting directions and orders from Sumedh Singh Saini. On 13-12-1991, Balwant Singh Multani, Manjit Singh, Balwant Singh Bhullar & Kultar Singh were all taken to police Station Sec. 17 Chandigarh, where Balwant Singh Bhullar was taken to a separate room and interrogated. Manjit Singh was made to remove clothes and given stick beatings. DSP Baldev Singh Saini and his team of interrogators also gave electrical shocks on his ear-lobes, penis and testicles. Japreet Inder Singh was hung upside down from ceiling and given beatings which led to bleeding. During late night, the then SSP

Chandigarh Sumedh Singh Saini himself went to the Police Station and all the five illegally detained persons, including my brother, were produced before him and were tortured in the presence and on the instructions of SSP Sumedh Singh Saini. That night, my brother Balwant Singh Multani and Jaspreetinder Singh were detained in the same cell. My brother was in bad shape and had lost his mental balance due to intensive torture. It is pertinent to mention here that whereabouts of Balhwant Singh Bhallar are still not kown till date. A false and frivolous case was registered against Balwant Singh Multani after 2 days on 13-12-1991, vide FIR No. 440/91 U/s 212, 216 IPC and Sec 25 Arms Act, Sec 3 & 5 (TADA Act) at P.S. Sec. 17, Chandigarh. He was shown to have been arrested in the said case on the basis of false general allegations by SI HarSahai Sharma I/c Police Station Sec. 17, Chandigarh and his team from near KC Theatre, Chandigarh. All this was manipulated and fabricated under directions of Sumedh Singh Saini IPS SSP Chandigarh & his team of conspirers on account of his personal agenda, pertaining to FIR No.334, Dt 29-08-1991, lodged for an attempt made on his (Saini's) life by unknown persons. Police remand of Balwant Singh Multani was taken by SI HarSahai Sharma on false pretensions, again under the instructions of Sumedh Singh Saini and his co-conspirators. Balwant Singh Muiltani thereafter was inhumanly tortured personally by Sumedh Singh Saini and his team comprising SI HarSahai Sharma, SI Jagir Singh, DSP' Baldev Singh Saini and other police officials. He was so badly tortured that he could not evenwalk by himself and had a swollen face as disclosed by persons who had seen him in custody. Balwant Singh could not withstand the torture and succumbed to the injuries caused by the above accused persons. To cover up this ghastly act of having murdered Balwant Singh Multani, afterhaving illegally abducted and inhumanly tortured him, the accused persons, in pursuance of a criminal conspiracy, forged and manipulated document showing that SI Jagir Singh had taken Balwant Singh to Qadian (Police Distt. Punjab) for disclosing the whereabouts of some Navneet Singh and effecting his arrest. The police team is shown to have been led by SI Jagir Singh comprising SI Anokh Singh, ASI Kuldip Singh. HC

Charanjit Singh (No 1054), C. Sudesh Kumar (No. 2346), HC Inder Singh Mukh (No. 1145), C. Nirmal Singh (No. 2283), C. Shiv Kumar (No. 548), C. Pardeep Kumar (No. 2658), driver C. Raj Singh (No. 3208) CIA-1, C. Balkar Singh (No. 506), C. Surinder Kumar (No. 2332) alongwith one section of CRP 2"Batallion. At Qadian, Balwant Singh Multani was shown to have been kept in police station lock-up where the entire Chandigarh Police and CRPF team also stayed on guard. Besides, Punjab Police officials were also, obviously, guarding the police station. In such a situation, as per police version, the badly crippled Balwant Singh Multani, who had already undergone seven days of inhuman torture from 11-12-1991 was shown to have escaped from custody and pursuant to that, the police indulged in fabricating another official document vis FIR No. 112/91 Dated 19-12-1991 U/s 223, 224 IPC, PS Qadian (Police Distt. Batala).It is of great consequence that since then, whereabouts of Balwant Singh Multani are not known and he has since been conveniently shown as a proclaimed offender in the police records, both at Chandigarh as well as at Police Station Qadian. Further, the vengeance with which Sumedh Singh Saini and his coteriei still proceded against Balwant Singh Multani, who had since been eliminated by them, is exhibited from the fact that in FIR No. 334 dated 29-08-1991, PS Sec 17, Chandigarh relating to attempt on his life, Balwant Singh Multani was indicted as an accused and shown a proclaimed offender. The falsehood of the entire case is borne out from the fact that the 3 persons arrested and tried in the case were acquitted by the trial court. The judgment of acquittal has been upheld by the appellat court. My father Late Sh. D. S. Multani (IAS Retd.) pursued the matter pertaining to the illegal abduction and inhuman torture leading to the death of Balwant Singh Multani and the entire forged and fabricated / manipulated cover-up by the above mentioned accused. Due to his untiring efforts since 1991, a preliminary enquiry was conducted under the directions of Punjab & Haryana High Court, which led to the registration of FIR No. RC5 12008(S)0010 Dated 02-07-2008 U/s 120(B), 364, 343, 330, 167 & 193 IPC by CBI at Chandigarh. The order passed by Hon'ble High Court was challenged in the

Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Court set aside the order passed by High Court on the ground that the bench of the Hon'ble High Court passing the order lacked jurisdiction to deal with the case & as a consequence thereof, the FIR registered by CBI based on these orders was quashed only on technical grounds. Simultaneously, the Hon'ble Supreme Court had given us the liberty to take recourse to fresh proceedings. The Supreme Court however did not discuss and comment on the merits of the case. The findings in this regard are reproduced: "78. The XXXXXXXX The mltti- dimensional defective legal process adopted by the court below cannot be justified on any rational legal principle. The High Court was swayed away by considerations that are legally impermissible and unsustainable. 79. In view of the above, the appeals suddeed and are accordingly allowed. The impugned orders challenged here in are declared to be nullity and as a cornsequence, the FIR registered by CBI is also quashed". As mentioned above, Hon'ble Supreme Court however, did not debar or restrain any legal action for the illegal acts amounting to offences under the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and other penal provisions, while specifically ordering as under: "Para 80) However, it is open to the applicants who had filed the petitions under Section 482 Cr. PC. to take recourse to fresh proceedings, if permissible in law. " the illegal acts of the above mentioned accused persons clearly disclose commission of cognizable ofiences as has also been established by the CBI durings preliminary enquiry (PE) and therefore, it is the solemn duty of the police to lodge an FIR for the ghastly acts of the accused in terms of the specific directions of the SC. in case of "LalitaKumari V/s State of UP & others" From the totality of facts and circumstances detailed above, it is crystal clear that my brother Balwant Singh Multani was unlawfully abducted, inhumanly tortured and killed in custody by Sumedh Singh Saini and police personnel under his command. His body was disposed of in order to destroy evidence and further cover up was manipulated by showing his escape from custody from Police Station Qadian in connivance with concerned Punjab Police, including the then SHO SI Jasvir Singh, MHC Harjit Singh , C. Savinder Singh (No. 1675), C. Anup Singh

(No. 2900) AMHC Sukhjinder Singh, and other police personnel. It is hence earnestly requested that a case FIR be lodged for the illegal abduction, inhuman torture, leading to elimination faked disappearance of my brother Balwant Singh Multani by the above named accused persons and strict legal action be taken against them.
